Response to Amendment

Receipt is acknowledged of applicant's amendment filed October 5, 2005. Claims 14-15 have been canceled without prejudice. Claims 1-13 and 16-22 are pending and an action on the merits is as follows.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-13 and 16-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Koizumi (U.S. 5,203,399).

Koizumi discloses a heat transfer device comprising all of the applicant's claimed and disclosed limitations of the instant invention (Figs. 4-5B).

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Art Unit: 3753

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 7-9, 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shibasaki (U.S. 6,556,439).

Shibasaki discloses a cooling unit for heat generating devices comprising all of the applicant's claimed and disclosed limitations of the instant invention (See figs).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shibasaki (U.S. 6,556,439) in view of Kurokawa et al. (U.S. 6,711,017).

Shibasaki's invention discloses all of the claimed limitations from above except for part of the circulation pipe including an odd-shaped circulation pipe having a substantially elliptic cross section.

Art Unit: 3753

7. However, Kurokawa teaches the use of part of the circulation pipe including an odd-shaped circulation pipe having a substantially elliptic cross section.

Given the teachings of Kurokawa, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the cooling device of Shibasaki with part of the circulation pipe including an odd-shaped circulation pipe having a substantially elliptic cross section.

Doing so would provide an alternate pipe configuration for fitting the circulation pipe within the electronic enclosure.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 3, 5, 6, 10-13, 16, 19 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following references are cited for disclosing related limitations of the applicant's claimed and disclosed invention.
